Children film festival

Staff Reporter

Aizawl, May 26: Mizoram is witnessing a CFSI Film Bonanza, a children's film festival, which is being presented by Children's Film Society, India and directorate of school education, government of Mizoram along with Cinedarbaar. This extensive festival covers all the districts of Mizoram and will last till May 28.

The film festival was inaugurated at Government Vengthlang Middle School, Champhai.

CFSI's Film Bonanza showcases films like Kima's Lode -Beyond the class directed by Zuata Chhangle (2015), Nokpokliba by Meren Imchen (2005), Goopi Gawayyaa Bagha Bajaiyaa by Shilpa Ranade (2013) and Krish, Trish & Batliboy directed by Munjal Shroff and Tilakraj

the children from North-East.

Dr. Shравan Kumar, CEO, CFSI said, "We have been very active in bringing high-quality children's entertainment to the North-East by way of exposing them to CFSI films for the last few years. We have seen many creative personnel from the North-East, being involved in various film making projects. CFSI Film Bonanza is one of the significant initiatives that CFSI has undertaken over the years to bring the North-East closer to the mainstream India. We will continue similar initiatives as we go ahead into the future."

CFSI was setup in 1955 and since then it has produced over 250 films for children including feature films, short films, animations, television and
